

SUMMER SCHOOL

The role of international and nongovernmental organizations in migration governance

9-11 JULY 2024 R.

	TUESDAY (09.07)	WEDNESDAY (10.07)	THURSDAY (11.07)
10.00 – 11.00	INAUGURATION OF SUMMER SCHOOL Lecture on the status of NGOs and international organizations in national legislation and the system in general Prof. Dr. Sc. Mirza Čaušević – University “VITEZ”	Brown Business, Challenges and Success Asef Salloom – Ganesha Global Foundation	The German Red Cross’ work in the context of displacement and migration Bastian Schlinck – German Red Cross
11.00 – 12.00	Social Response to the Humanitarian Crisis: The Case of the "Baobab" Integration Center in Lublin Piotr Skrzypczak – Homo Faber Association	NGO activities for migrants and refugees Grzegorz Gruca - Polish Humanitarian Action	EU migration policy? Dr Marta Pachocka - Europe Direct
12.00 – 13.00	Lunch break	Lunch break	Creativity and culture as an instrument of integration and activation of people with refugee experience. Specifics of working with different age groups Olesia Nezhywa – POLITES Association
			Lunch break
13.00 – 14.00	Humanitarian crisis at the Polish-Belarusian border in the context of international obligations binding Poland Dr Hanna Machińska	The work of IOM in Bosnia and Herzegovina Dino Pehlić – International Organization for Migration in Bosnia iHerzegovina	Crisis on the Polish-Belarusian border. The role of non-governmental organizations Ola Gulińska – Border Group
14.00 – 15.00	The role of non-governmental organizations in the management, care and representation of unaccompanied immigrant children in the United States. Prof. Sheila Vélez Martínez – Universty of Pittsburgh	NGOs and their recipients experiences Jasmin Redjepi &amp; Samir Beharić - University “VITEZ”	QUIZ Session for participants on adopted knowledge in Summer School &amp; Discussion Amra Mujanović &amp; Ensar Karadž - University “VITEZ” OFFICIAL CLOSURE OF SUMMER SCHOOL